atomi sinka Stefanoni to make World Semi in New Zealand – World Squesh

Youssef Ibrahim ensured that there will be Egyptian representation in the final of the men's championship for the 12th year in a row after beating rising US star Andrew Douglas.

But it took the 18-year-old top seed from Cairo – ranked 121 in the world – 53 minutes and five games to overcome Douglas and deny the 18-year-old from New York the chance to be the first ever US player to reach the event's last four.

Ibrahim took the opening two games – but Douglas, ranked 50 places lower, forced the next two to tie-breaks, saving a match-ball in the fourth, before the Egyptian favourite ultimately prevailed 11-4, 11-3, 10-12, 10-12

The win sees Ibrahim line up against compatriot Marwan Tarek in the semifinals after the 3/4 seed earlier beat India's Abhay Singh 8-11, 11-4, 11-6, 11-6

"So much pressure, I was winning comfortably then it became so tense," said !brahim after his victory. "I'm looking forward to playing a friend tomorrow!"

There was delight too in the French camp when Victor Crouin won his match in straight games to become the country's first male semi-finalist since his Seems white Stelenors to make World Sems in New Zissand - World Squar illustrious compatriot Gregory Gaultier, currently the world number one, reached the final in 2000.

Crouin, 18, from Toulon, ended unseeded Aly Hussein's run, beating the Egyptian 11-8, 11-4, 11-4 in his fourth successive straight games win in Tauranga.

"I'm pleased to make the semis for the first time – as a 3/4 seed, that was my minimum target," said Crouin (pictured above, right, in quarter-final action), I didn't feel any pressure, I just wanted to play my game and I was quite happy with how I played. Now I hope the others have a brutal battle!"

Crouin now faces second seed Mohammad Al Sarraj after the Jordanian also recorded a straight games win, beating Egypt's Mostafa Asal 11-8, 11-6, 11-6.

Mixed fortunes for Egyptians in World Juniors - World Squash

Unranked Stefanoni was facing 3/4 seed Nada Abbas for the first time – but played the game of her life to overcome an opponent ranked 37 in the world 12-10, 7-11, 11-7, 11-9 in 41 minutes.

"I'd never played her before, but I watched her play yesterday and saw how her opponent was winning points so I tried to replicate that," said the Connecticut teenager. "I started well but she fought back and I had to try to catch up again.

*At 6-1 in the fourth I lost a bit of focus, thinking it would be pretty cool to be in the quarters, but at 7-6 down I knew I had to get back to my game.

"It feels great to be in the quarters, really excited about that!"

Stefanoni now plays 5/8 seed Satomi Watanabe, a Japanese player who she will also be meeting for the first time.

An Egyptian semi-finalist is assured at the bottom of the draw where Amina Yousry and Zeina Mickawy meet in the quarters. 5/8 seed Yousry beat Hong Kong's Lui Hiu Lam 11-2, 4-11, 11-8, 11-2, while second seed Mickawy defeated Malaysian Aifa Azman 12-10, 13-11, 11-7.

"She's an up and coming player and she's going to be something, so all the pressure was on me," said Mickawy of her 15-year-old opponent. "Happy to get through that in three."
