Report	A Training Programme On Paperless Office was conducted for 2 days from 01-10-2019 - 05-10-2019 by IQAC. The Resource Person was Dr. J. Vanathi, Head, Department of B.Sc., IT, Guru Nanak College. The participants understood the various benefits of paperless office. A paperless office is a workplace that has minimal paper-based processes and relies on digitized documents instead. Some organizations prefer the term “paper-light” as many offices and departments cannot completely eliminate paper files because of process or compliance requirements. Regardless, reducing the use of paper helps accelerate an organization’s digital transformation journey. This typically involves transitioning to an electronic document management system that digitizes files and stores it in a central repository.
