RULES AND REGULATIONS

ATTENDANCE

Seventy five percentage of attendance is mandatory for the students to appear for the examination. However it is recommended that the students put in 100% attendance for all the lecture classes and practicals in their own interest and for their benefit.

ANTI-RAGGING

Ragging in any form in any place or time will be deemed a serious offence that will warrant severe punishment including expulsion from the college.. In this regard, the special Secretary to Government of Tamil Nadu, Chennai 600 009 has issued a notification under the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1997.

CELL PHONES

Students are not permitted to use cell phones in college campus. Violation of this rule will result in confiscation of the phone.

DRESS CODE

Though the College does not prescribe any uniform other than the Lab coats, the students are expected to dress in a modest way. T-shirts with printed wordings on them and without collars are not permitted for male students. Female students have to wear salwar kameez with dupatta, no sleeveless or transparent clothing is permitted in campus. Students are expected to make themselves presentable when inside the campus.

STRICTLY NO DONATIONS

Parents and guardians are informed that the College has a policy not to accept donations for admission directly or indirectly. Any malpractice in this regard may be brought to the notice of the Principal immediately.

FEES

The College collects very nominal fees affordable to the ordinary citizens of our Country.
Students who leave mid-way through the course should pay the fees for the entire course. No request for refund of fees will be entertained.

Close to five decades ago, the dream and yearning of a visionary, metamorphosed into a fledgling institution in the southern part of erstwhile Madras City, in commemoration of and as a fitting tribute to the great sikh saint of the millennium gone by, Shri Guru Nanak Devji, founder of sikhism.

GURU NANAK COLLEGE was established in the year 1971 as a unit of the Guru Nanak Educational Society, with the prime objective of universal brotherhood, oneness of god, communal harmony and welfare of the human race to transcend the barriers of caste, creed, colour and faith.

A Promient landmark of today's Chennai metropolis of the Tambaram - Velachery arterial road, the Guru Nanak College campus - gifted by the Government of Tamil Nadu for developing an Arts & Science College - is embraced by lush Greenery that so lovingly sprawls the entire 25-acre land… a serene setting that ideally suits the students' desire for a peaceful and holistic learning experience. As one among the top ten college in Chennai, Guru Nanak College function in strict compliance with governmental norms, admitting students, with 30% of the total strength reserved for women and with a provision to enroll aspiring transgender candidates as well.
